

THE SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK, UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH
ANNOUNCES THE SEARCH FOR THE DAVID E. EPPERSON CHAIR IN HEALTH AND SOCIAL WORK

The University of Pittsburgh School of Social Work is seeking applications for the endowed David E. Epperson Chair, named in honor of Dr. David E. Epperson, who served as Dean of the School of Social Work from 1972-2001.

It is expected that the Epperson Professor will be appointed with the rank of Professor. Applicants must have a distinguished scholarly record, a proven expertise in procuring external funding in health, and the ability to teach at the masters and doctoral levels. In addition, the candidate is expected to mentor students and junior faculty, as well as participate in service opportunities within the profession, school, and university.

The School of Social Work is a top ranked school offering a wide variety of multidisciplinary opportunities. The School offers BASW, MSW and Ph.D. programs, which includes joint programs in Law, Public Health, Public and International Affairs, and Theology. It hosts one of the nation's leading centers for training in the area of child welfare, and the Center on Race and Social Problems. The School provides scholarly opportunities and an intellectually stimulating and supportive environment.

Senior faculty with a proven record of research, teaching, and service are encouraged to apply. MSW degree preferred; Ph.D. in social work related field required.

Prospective candidates may be nominated or individuals may submit a letter of application along with a curriculum vitae. Applications should be sent to:

Daniel Rosen, Ph.D.
