Dear Social Workers and Other Helping Professionals,

The School of Social Work Child Welfare Resource Center and the Continuing Education Program are pleased that we have now had 1 million licensed professionals complete our free online Act 31 Training Course on Identifying and Reporting Child Abuse.

We are also pleased to welcome aboard our new Continuing Education Program Administrative Assistant, Shana Stein, who replaced Darlene Davis who has retired from the University. Also, a reminder that new this licensure cycle, social work continuing education programs can now be offered for a minimum of 1.0 hour, an, in addition to the 3-hour ethics CE requirement, social workers must now complete 1.0 hour in suicide assessment and intervention.

Keep up to date on our School of Social Work Continuing Education programs and other CE opportunities on at: www.socialwork.pitt.edu/continuing-ed or contact the CE Office at 412-624-6902 for more information or registration help.

On-line Act 31 Training Course
All licensed professionals in PA are required to complete a new Act 31 training course to qualify for each license renewal period. Over 1 million professionals in PA have now taken our online training on Identifying and Reporting Child Abuse, which is updated each licensing period. The School of Social Work through its Child Welfare Resource Center will continue to offer its free online Act 31 PA-mandated-training course at: www.reportabusepa.pitt.edu
