Present Models and Future Trends in Integrated Healthcare

Yvonne L. Littlejohn, LCSW, MBA
Integrated Behavioral Health Care Manager

Yvonne L. Brown Littlejohn, LCSW, MBA is a licensed clinical social worker for the state of PA. She received her Master of Business Administration, health care administration, from Chatham University, in 2007 and her Master of Social Work, with a focus in direct practice, from the University of Pittsburgh Graduate School of Social Work. Yvonne began her social work career as an adoption and foster care social worker for Three Rivers Adoption Council, working with abused children and their families led Yvonne to determine that she wanted to make a greater impact of support for abused children and become a psychotherapist. Yvonne obtained the bulk of her therapeutic experience as a family based senior clinician, through WPIC’s Family Based Clinical Program.

In 2006, Yvonne started her outpatient practice; while also working as a director of a wraparound program. Continuing her vocation with children, Yvonne’s work focused on helping parents become better parents to their children and preventing out-of-home placements of their children.

Today, Yvonne is the integrated behavioral healthcare manager of St. Margaret’s Hospital’s three family healthcare centers, located in New Kensington, Bloomfield/Garfield and Lawrenceville areas. The healthcare centers maintain integration and collaboration between the physicians, dietitians, and pharmacy and social work departments.
