Are you interested in having a career in Integrated Healthcare?

We would like to familiarize you with our Integrated Healthcare Fellowship program for second year and advanced standing MSW students. This fellowship is part of a grant made possible by the Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA), an agency of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. The fellowship provides a $10,000 annual stipend and is open to students who are United States citizens, in Direct Practice, have a minimum GPA of 3.5, and sign a declaration to complete the Integrated Healthcare Certificate. Students will be placed in an approved integrated healthcare concentration field placement, providing care to individuals and groups across the life span, in both rural and medically needy health service areas. Applications are available starting January 28 and will be accepted through March 1st. For additional information, please contact Ms. Misha Zorich atmaz49@pitt.edu

The University of Pittsburgh School of Social Work is holding a contest to name the next HRSA supported Integrated Behavioral Health Fellowship.

The contest begins on November 6, 2017 and is open to all University of Pittsburgh MSW students. Submissions will be accepted through December 6, 2017. The winner will be notified by email and announced via the School of Social Work website and social media platforms.

The name and tagline must reflect the HRSA supported fellowship: Integrated Behavioral Health Workforce Education and Training.

The purpose of this grant is to prepare MSW students to meet the needs of individuals, across the life-span, in integrated health care settings in rural areas and other medically underserved populations.

The program name and tagline of the fellowship cannot contain copyrighted material or include taglines or licensed images that have been previously published.

Email a name, a tagline for the fellowship, and an explanation of the tagline to maz49@pitt.edu.

Winners will be selected by the University of Pittsburgh School of Social Work. Contestants agree that the University of Pittsburgh School of Social Work may publish their program title and tagline, and may use both for advertising campaigns and/or marketing materials in the future. Contestants assign all ownership rights, including all intellectual property rights of the program title and tagline to the University of Pittsburgh School of Social Work. Additionally, the University of Pittsburgh School of Social Work may alter, modify or revise the program title and tagline as it sees necessary to achieve the goals of the School. The University of Pittsburgh School of Social Work reserves the right to not select a winner if, in its sole discretion, no suitable entries are received.

Prize: A $100 Pitt Bookstore Gift Card

Please direct all submissions and any questions to maz49@pitt.edu
