Third Annual Conference

SHALE & PUBLIC HEALTH

Wednesday, November 18, 8:30 a.m. - 5:30 p.m.
University of Pittsburgh University Club (123 University Place)
League of Women Voters of Pennsylvania

Hosted by the University of Pittsburgh Graduate School of Public Health

Nationally known speakers will present the latest research on shale and public health impacts.
This year’s conference includes a roundtable brainstorming session with experts and civic leaders.
There is also a special breakout session on addressing shale and health issues in practice for those seeking professional credit hours.

ACCREDITED FOR SOCIAL WORK, NURSING CE’s, and CPHCEU’s through Region III Public Health Training Center (accreditation for other disciplines is pending)

2015 Shale and Public Health Conference has been planned in collaboration with the University of Pittsburgh Region III Public Health Training Center.

2015 Shale and Public Health Conference is offered for 8 hours of social work continuing education through co-sponsorship of the University of Pittsburgh’s School of Social Work, a Council on Social Work Education-accredited school and, therefore, a PA pre-approved provider of social continuing education. These credit hours satisfy requirements for LSW/LCSW, LPC and LMFT biennial license renewal.

The conference itself is free. There is a $14 charge for lunch.

PRE-REGISTRATION REQUIRED: SPACE IS LIMITED
