

HAVE YOU EXPERIENCED PSYCHIATRIC DISABILITY-BASED DISCRIMINATION OR THE DENIAL OF AN ACCOMMODATION IN A POSTSECONDARY INSTITUTION IN THE UNITED STATES?

help inform national advocacy efforts

Mental Health America (lead: Kelly Davis), in collaboration with Dr. Nev Jones (University of Pittsburgh), Stefanie Kaufman-Mthimkhulu (Project Lets) and the Bazelon Center for Mental Health Law, have developed a survey aimed at providing a more comprehensive understanding of student experiences of campus-based discrimination, mandated leaves of absence, and/or denial of academic, administrative and/or student-work accommodations in the US.

Who is eligible? Current or former students who are at least 18 years of age and have experienced any of the following on the basis of a psychiatric disability, including Autism, within the past 10 years:

- The denial or refusal of a psychiatric disability-based administrative, work or academic accommodation in a higher ed institution;
- A mandated (involuntary) leave of absence from school;
- Conditional return to school (return only if certain conditions are met) or refusal of reinstatement of a return to campus;
- Any other form of discrimination based on a psychiatric disability

How will the survey be used? Data will be used to inform national advocacy efforts and future projects, and in reports, presentations and publications.
