The CCPA invites applications for tenure track faculty positions at open rank in the Department of Social Work, beginning in September 2017. The CCPA is comprised of four departments – Human Development, Public Administration, Social Work, and Student Affairs Administration, and an interdisciplinary doctoral program in Community and Public Affairs. The CCPA is located in the heart of the city of Binghamton, in proximity to local agencies with which faculty collaborate. Detailed information about the CCPA is available at: http://www.binghamton.edu/ccpa.

The open rank tenure track professors will join a dynamic, creative team of educators and cutting-edge scholars, who are committed to preparing students for multi-level social work practice grounded in social justice principles. Requirements for the position include: MSW with two years full-time equivalent post-MSW practice experience and a Ph.D. (social work preferred). Candidates with research expertise in homelessness/poverty, interpersonal violence and sexual assault, or mental health are preferred. Candidates are expected to demonstrate a rigorous program of scholarly research, external funding, high quality teaching, and a commitment to social justice.

For additional information, contact Dr. Victoria M. Rizzo, Social Work Department Chair and Associate Professor. E-mail: vrizzo@binghamton.edu.

Binghamton University believes in, and supports, diversity and inclusion as integral to academic excellence. We actively seek applications from under-represented racial/ethnic groups, sexual minorities, veterans, persons with disabilities and women.

Interested candidates for all three positions should submit the following items electronically to http://binghamton.interviewexchange.com: (1) cover letter that describes their scholarly research interests and teaching philosophy, (2) curriculum vita, (3) two samples of academic writing, (4) list of the names, addresses, telephone numbers, and e-mail addresses of three academic references and, (5) three electronic letters of recommendation, which should be uploaded by the academic references to http://binghamton.interviewexchange.com.

Review of applications will begin immediately. The application process will remain open until the positions are filled.

Binghamton University is an EEO/Affirmative Action employer.
