The Indiana University School of Social Work (IUSSW) invites applications for three (3) open-rank tenure-track faculty positions on the Indianapolis campus. These positions are ten-month appointments with responsibility for teaching, research, and service. Successful candidates will be expected to teach face-to-face and online across the BSW and MSW curricula as well as occasional classes in IU-partner campus locations. The anticipated start date is January 2017.

Essential qualifications include an earned doctorate in social work or a related field, an MSW degree from a CSWE-accredited program, and at least two years of post-MSW practice experience. Successful candidates should have a well-articulated research and publication agenda as well as demonstrated interest in seeking external grants to support scholarly activities. Candidates for the title of Associate or Full Professor must demonstrate a history of external grants and scholarly publications to merit appointment at this level.

Salary is competitive and commensurate with qualifications and experience.
