Non-Tenure Track Faculty Opening in Clinical Practice for Fall, 2016

The Boston University School of Social Work invites applications for a non-tenure track position of Clinical Assistant Professor. We seek candidates with teaching skills and scholarly expertise in clinical practice.

Located in an unusually rich academic and international community, Boston offers excellent opportunities for interdisciplinary collaboration with universities, communities and health and mental health agencies. The School is distinguished by its vision to advance a just society that promotes the health and empowerment of all oppressed groups, and by its mission to develop dynamic and diverse social work practitioners, leaders, and scholars in a multicultural environment. Special areas of expertise within the school include community organizing, planning and management, health and mental health, aging, children and youth, trauma and families, substance abuse, and public health social work. The School of Social Work and Boston University foster an interdisciplinary collegial environment and seek to attract and retain a culturally and academically diverse faculty of the highest caliber who are skilled in teaching, scholarship, and the application and integration of knowledge.

Candidates should have at least five years of full-time practice experience (or the equivalent) in clinical practice. Applicants must have an MSW or equivalent; a PhD or equivalent degree is desirable. Individuals must show evidence of strong teaching skills, clinical practice and service, and scholarly interests in practice, pedagogy and/or substantive problems and populations.

The deadline for applications is December 1, 2015 or until positions are filled. Early applications are encouraged. Visit our website at www.bu.edu/ssw.

We are an equal opportunity employer and all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability status, protected veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by law. We are a VEVRAA Federal Contractor. Applications from minority individuals are strongly encouraged.

Please submit a letter of application outlining teaching and research/scholarship skills and experience, as well as a current CV, sample publications/writings, teaching evaluations, and three letters of reference to:
