

Adjunct Faculty Openings

The University of Pittsburgh School of Social Work is seeking applications for various adjunct faculty opportunities in both the BASW and MSW programs.

The School of Social Work is a top ranked school offering a wide variety of multidisciplinary opportunities. The School offers BASW, MSW and Ph.D. programs, which includes joint programs in Law, Public Health, Public and International Affairs, and Theology. It hosts one of the nation's leading centers for training in the area of child welfare, and the Center on Race and Social Problems. The School provides scholarly opportunities and an intellectually stimulating and supportive environment.

Requirements

MSW with at least two years post-MSW practice experience. Prior teaching experience in either an academic or agency setting is preferred.

Position Description

We are seeking applicants who can teach in either the BASW or MSW program, with opportunities for both generalist and advanced skills courses. Adjunct faculty are hired within an academic semester, with future opportunities contingent upon performance and course availability.

To Apply

Please submit a letter of application outlining teaching and practice experiences and specific course(s) you are qualified to teach, along with your curriculum vita to:
