

University of Pittsburgh

School of Social Work

Social Work Minor

The Social Work Minor requires the successful completion of 15 credits from the following list of courses:

- SOCWRK 1000: Introduction to Social Work (Required for all subsequent courses except for SOCWRK 1005.) This is a service-learning course and requires 45 hours of volunteer service. (Offered Fall and Spring Terms)
- SOCWRK 1005: Foundations of the Welfare State (offered in Fall Term)
- SOCWRK 1006: Policy Analysis (pre-requisites SOCWRK 1000 & SOCWRK 1005; offered in Spring Term.) This is a service-learning course and requires 45 hours of volunteer service.
- SOCWRK 1035: Global Perspectives in Social Work (offered in Spring Term)
- SOCWRK 1040: Poverty and Income Inequality (offered in Spring Term)
- SOCWRK 1050: Race and Social Problems (offered in Fall Term)
- SOCWRK 1058: Economics and Social Work (offered in Fall Term)
- SOCWRK 1059: Child and Family Advocacy (offered in Fall Term)
- SOCWRK 1063: African-American Health Issues (offered in Fall Term)
- SOCWRK 1079: Child Welfare Services (offered in both Fall and Spring Terms)

ALL COURSES MUST BE COMPLETED WITH A GRADE OF C OR BETTER.

The Social Work Minor is available to all Pitt students!

For more information, contact the BASW & PhD Operations Lead, Karen Sykes at Karen.Sykes@pitt.edu. Below is the QR code for the Social Work minor webpage.

