

University of Pittsburgh School of Social Work
Behavioral Health Workforce Education and Training (BHWET) Program
Edith Baker Integrated Behavioral Healthcare Fellowship (M01HP31376)

November 6, 2019

Grief, Loss, & Spirituality

Toya Jones, MSW, LCSW

President, Freedom Indeed LLC

Therapist, Vision Towards Peace Counseling Services, Wilksburg, PA

Lecturer, University of Pittsburgh School of Social Work

toyaj@pitt.edu

Toya Jones is a licensed clinical social worker for the state of Pennsylvania. She is a lecturer in the School of Social Work, 2016 to present. In addition, Toya is the founder and president of Freedom Indeed LLC, a community organization that focuses on servicing and empowering ex-offenders and victims of crime. This program helps promote positive mental health and healthy living through groups and individual trauma therapy. She has earned a bachelor's degree in Psychology from Indiana University of PA and a Master of Social Work from the University of Pittsburgh; where she is a doctoral student in the University of Pittsburgh School of Education. Toya has extensive experience working with children and families impacted by violence and crime for over twenty years. She provides crisis intervention, counseling, and community education programs that address the causes and impacts of various categories of violence and crime. Toya also conducts individual, family, and group therapy for those who have been directly and indirectly affected by violence. She has experience and training in counselor-legal advocacy, crisis management, conflict resolution and mediation, working with both victims of juvenile crime and in the adult criminal justice system. Toya is also a contracted expert witness and consultant for the federal courts. Additionally, she facilitates trainings for clinicians and the community with topics such as: the impact of trauma on children and adults, teen violence, signs and symptoms of PTSD, treatment modalities (such as, TF-CBT, expressive and play therapies) for children and adults impacted by trauma and overcoming unresolved trauma, for universities, grade schools, communities, religious organizations and private corporations. She is married to Rev. Cornell Jones and has two children Cornell "CJ" Jones 12, and Naomi Jones age 8.

Rev. Jacqueline Elisa Lyde, MDiv. BCC

Lead Chaplain

Pastoral and Spiritual Care Services

UPMC Western Psychiatric Hospital

lydeje@upmc.edu

Jackie serves as the Lead Chaplain at UPMC Western Psychiatric Hospital, Pastor of Congregational Care at Baptist Temple Church, and Mentor at Pittsburgh Theological Seminary. She is a Master of Divinity (MDiv.) graduate from Princeton Theological Seminary as well as a Bachelor of Science graduate from the University of Maryland University College. Additionally, she is a Board Certified Chaplain (BCC) via the Association of Professional Chaplains. Jackie is the wife to Pastor Rodney Adam Lyde serving also as first lady to Baptist Temple Church. They are blessed with two daughters Jelisa Naomi and Jada Noelle. Above all, Rev. Jackie and family have their own personal relationships with God through Jesus Christ and seek for the will of God to be done in and through them individually as well as collectively by the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

Julia Scanlon, MSW, LCSW

Clinical Social Worker

Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh of UPMC, Department of Newborn Medicine

julia.scanlon@chp.edu

Julia Scanlon, MSW, LCSW is a social worker at UPMC Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh in the Neonatal Intensive Care Unit (NICU). She graduated from the Pennsylvania State University in 2010 with a B.S. in Psychology and obtained her MSW with a focus in Children, Youth and Families from the University of Pittsburgh in 2012. She began work at Children's shortly after graduation and has been a field instructor since 2014. Julia has supervised students from both the Cannon and Baker Fellowships.