

Several positions at Carlow University

BSW Assistant Professor

The Bachelor of Social Work Program at Carlow University invites applications for a full-time, non-tenure track position at the rank of assistant professor. This is a nine-month, full-time academic appointment to begin in August 2023. We seek a scholar-practitioner with an understanding of trauma-informed approaches across all systems and knowledge of research-informed practice.

The successful applicant will have experience teaching undergraduate level CSWE required core social work courses, including generalist practice courses, skills in direct practice, and experience with field education. Applicants should be able to demonstrate teaching experience in the online and face-to-face environments to a diverse student population, including adult and non-traditional students.

Applicants should have a demonstrated interest in course development and in collaboration with colleagues on projects to advance the BSW program and grow enrollment. Applicants should evidence a commitment to Carlow University's social justice mission and to the BSW Program's mission and values, including a commitment to culturally competent education, diversity, and trauma-informed approaches.

Required Qualifications:

MSW degree from a CSWE accredited program.

2 years post-MSW direct practice experience.

LSW or LCSW

Teaching and Field Education experience in a CSWE accredited undergraduate program in both the online and face-to-face environments.

Preference will be given to candidates with knowledge and/or experience in healthcare social work and/or crisis intervention and trauma informed care.

Appointment Date:

The position begins in August 2023. Review of applications will continue until the position is filled.

How to Apply:

Please submit a: letter of introduction; CV; statement of teaching philosophy; and contact information for three (3) references. Only completed packets will be advanced in consideration. Review will begin immediately and continue until an appointment is made.

Assistant Professor of Social Work, MSW Program (Tenure Track)

Carlow University currently has 2 vacancies for a full-time, tenure-track faculty position in the Master of Social Work (MSW) Program. This is a nine-month academic appointment to begin in August 2023. The primary responsibilities of the candidate will be teaching graduate social work courses, advising students, and assisting with course and program development.

The ideal candidate will be a scholar-practitioner whose work, teaching, and scholarship is grounded in trauma-informed practices, and who is committed to exercising cultural humility and envisioning the future of liberal arts education in a rapidly changing environment. Preferred candidates will have demonstrated the ability to engage students in issues of race, equity, and inclusion and will be able to articulate a connection between the Carlow University mission and their teaching, scholarship, and service.
