POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT: Assistant Professor, School of Social Work

Responsibilities:
The department seeks a candidate with experience teaching and leading students, faculty, and staff from diverse backgrounds and expertise in social work practice. The ideal candidate will demonstrate outstanding interpersonal, verbal, and written communication skills, and able to collaborate with the SSWK faculty toward goal achievement.

Responsibilities include:
- Teaches both undergraduate and graduate students in Springfield (in person and online platform), advises and supports BSW & MSW students’ degree attainment
- Engages in service to the school, college, university, and community
- Engages in scholarly activities beyond those associated with teaching and is expected to Demonstrate professional productivity in research, based upon the availability of resources

Qualifications:
- Candidates must have a doctorate in Social Work or closely related field. ABD may be considered.
- Candidates must have a MSW degree from a CSWE-accredited program.
- Candidates must have teaching experience at the college or university level, with evidence of innovative, learner-center pedagogy, including online teaching experience.
- Candidates must have the ability to teach courses in the social work generalist curriculum at the undergraduate and graduate levels.
- A successful candidate will have demonstrated commitment to diversity and equity.

See http://jobs.missouristate.edu/postings/58630 for full description of position and to apply online. EO/AA/M/F/Veterans/Disability/Sexual Orientation/Gender Identity. Employment will require a completed criminal background check and drug screen without disqualifications.

Questions may be directed to the Search Committee Chair, Regina Russell, SSWK-Associate Clinical Professor at russell@missouristate.edu 417-836-6322.

The minimum acceptable qualifications for the position of Assistant Professor are prescribed in the Faculty Handbook. The ability to develop knowledge of, respect for, and skills to engage with those of other cultures or backgrounds is required.