The School of Social Work at Wichita State University invites applications for one nine-month tenure-eligible faculty position at the rank of Assistant Professor to begin in August 2022. The School of Social Work offers both an Advanced Generalist MSW degree and a Generalist BSW degree and serves over 370 graduate and undergraduate social work students with 12 full-time faculty positions. Wichita State University is located within the state’s largest metropolitan area and provides a competitive benefits package, new faculty orientation, support, and opportunities for research, scholarship, and professional development.

We are especially interested in a candidate with experience and capacities to teach in core social work curricular areas, especially related to direct practice, including introduction to social work, field practicum, and generalist practice courses. All areas of research will be considered.

Required Qualifications:

* Ph.D. in social work or DSW from an institution of higher learning recognized by the Group for the Advancement of Doctoral Education in Social Work. ABD candidates in social work will be considered but applicant must provide documentation of degree conferral prior to the start date of employment.
* MSW degree from a CSWE-accredited social work program
* Three years of post-MSW, full-time practice experience required; part-time equivalent of 3 years full-time practice experience will be considered
* Demonstrated successful teaching at graduate and/or undergraduate level
* Demonstrated success in scholarly contributions
* Demonstrated willingness and ability to work with culturally diverse and underrepresented populations as well as a commitment to social justice
* Demonstrated willingness and ability to contribute to areas of outreach and service to the department, college, university, profession, and community

Further details are included on the attached job posting. If you have questions, please contact Dr. Amy Alberton (Amy.Alberton@wichita.edu).
