

2 Tenure-Track Faculty Positions (Open Rank)

Fall 2022

The University at Buffalo is a research-extensive university and a member of the prestigious American Association of Universities. At the University at Buffalo (UB) are the internationally known Center in Bioinformatics and the Clinical and Translational Science Institute. As an urban public research university, UB is the largest institution in the State University of New York (SUNY) system and one of two flagship campuses.

The School of Social Work offers a master's degree and two doctoral degrees. Nationally ranked within the top 25 of accredited social work programs we enroll over 600 students and offer the MSW degree, online MSW degree, PhD degree, online DSW, and BA/MSW, JD/MSW, MBA/MSW, MPH/MSW and MSW/PhD combined programs. The MSW and DSW programs have unique and exciting curricula that integrate trauma and human rights perspectives. The Buffalo Center for Social Research (BCSR) is housed within the School of Social Work and provides faculty support in pursuing external funding. The BCSR is also home to the Institute on Trauma and Trauma-Informed Care, Behavioral Health Clinic, Immigrant and Refugee Research Institute, Institute for Sustainable Global Engagement, Institute for Healthy Engagement and Resiliency with Technology, as well as the UB/Amrita Social and Behavioral Sciences Research Institute. We have several unique partnerships with the School of Management related to social innovation in the nonprofit and business sectors, including our Social Impact Fellows Program.
