The West Virginia University School of Social Work invites applications for the following non-tenure track faculty positions:

- Field Coordinator (Job #18900) – This hybrid position will develop field education programming for online students completing in-person internships in their home communities and will join a faculty team dedicated to the online MSW program. For questions, contact search committee chair, Lindsey Rinehart, at lindsey.rinehart@mail.wvu.edu.

  Qualifications include a CSWE-accredited master’s degree in social work (candidates who also have a doctoral degree are eligible for appointment at the rank of Clinical Assistant Professor); two years post-MSW professional social work practice experience; ability to coordinate field education placements for students; ability to teach and conduct educational presentations; and, proficiency in Microsoft Office software.

- BSW Recruitment and Advising Coordinator (Job #18896) – This campus-based position will develop student recruitment activities, plan new student orientation, and engage in advising and teaching in the BSW program. For questions, contact search committee chair, Dr. Megan Gandy, at megan.gandy@mail.wvu.edu.

  Qualifications include a CSWE-accredited master’s degree in social work (candidates who also have a doctoral degree are eligible for appointment at the rank of Clinical Assistant Professor); two years post-MSW professional social work practice experience; ability to teach and conduct educational presentations; and, proficiency in Microsoft Office software.

The WVU School of Social Work is accredited by the Council on Social Work Education and enrolls approximately 350 students at the BSW and MSW levels. The MSW Program offers a specialization in Advanced Integrated Practice. The School will also offer a PhD degree program beginning in fall 2023.

WVU is a R1 research land grant university located within 90 minutes of Pittsburgh and 3.5 hours from the Washington/Baltimore area. Morgantown has been recognized as one of the most livable small cities in the U.S. There are extensive recreational opportunities, excellent public schools, and a supportive University environment in which to develop a visible and productive career. The WVU Dual Career Program is available to assist candidates with suitable employment opportunities for spouses or partners.

To apply, visit https://careers.wvu.edu/career-opportunities and input the job number in the keyword blank. Submit a single PDF document containing (a) a letter of application outlining your interest in, and qualifications for, the position; (b) vita; and (c) contact information for at least three references. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the positions are filled.

WVU is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer and the recipient of an NSF ADVANCE award for gender equity. The university values diversity among its faculty, staff, and students, and invites applications from all qualified individuals, including minorities, females, individuals with disabilities, and veterans.