Adagio Health

POSITION: Afterschool Program Facilitator

REPORTS TO: Manager, Education Programs

Adagio Health is seeking dynamic, energetic, socially conscious individuals to help propel our Community Education Department forward. If you are looking for a meaningful, high-quality, high-impact experience, we encourage you to apply.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. Delivers curriculum-based health education and social and emotional learning programming to adolescents in community and school-based settings.
2. Works primarily in an afterschool program setting with little supervision.
3. Works closely with the Department Supervisor to ensure community educational requirements are met.
4. Maintains professional relationships with community partners to ensure the successful delivery of programming.
5. Performs implementation of pre-/post-tests.
6. Collects and prepares demographic and other data for reports as required.
7. Performs other duties as required.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Bachelors Degree required.
- Act 33/34 clearances.
- Two years of experience working with adolescents, high-risk populations a plus; previous experience with classroom facilitation required.
- Experience and training in Social and Emotional Learning or similar curriculum and programming required.
- Strong interpersonal and communication skills.
- Ideal candidates are charismatic and possess a strong individual
- Training in Health Education, Wyman Teen Outreach Program, or community service learning a plus, but not required.
- Position located in Pittsburgh, PA.
- Familiarity with Microsoft Suite required.
- Local travel and valid PA drivers' license required.
- Must be flexible with work schedule, ability to work evenings and weekend

https://adagiohealth.isolvedhire.com/jobs/280298.html