The Chinese state’s persecution of the Uyghur Turkic minority meets the UN definition of genocide for implementing campaigns of mass sterilization, forced abortions and mandatory birth control.

Why did you choose this topic?
• Muslim struggles are usually overlooked due to the Western terrorist narrative that is pushed about Muslims. As this situation has been going on for years now, we want to look into why more hasn’t been done about it, and also educate those around us on this situation.

One point that you want your classmates to know about this topic
• The Uyghurs have a long history of persecution, however the Chinese Communist region has been the darkest period in time for them due to the severe religious oppression and presence of detention centers.

References

