Child Welfare Education for Baccalaureates
A career opportunity for social work students interested in the dynamic and rewarding field of child welfare

CWEB’s goal is to strengthen public child welfare services in Pennsylvania by providing educational opportunities for undergraduate social work majors preparing for employment in one of Pennsylvania’s 67 public child welfare agencies.

Persons admitted to the CWEB program for full-time study receive:

- Full tuition and fees for two senior year semesters
- Fellowship of $780 per month for 10 months
- $100 book allowance for child welfare course materials
- Enrollment in Charting the Course competency and skill-based training

What we need from you:

- A commitment to learn about the field of child welfare
- Completed CWEB application (online only)
- Personal statement of interest
- Official acceptance as a social work major with at least junior status
- Recommendation from the faculty at the School of Social Work
- Academic transcripts
- Current resume
- Copy of valid driver’s license
